First Gold found in Heber City (1860-1903)

Jane the Donald Clyde was the wife of George Washington Clyde. She was born in Cardigan, County Down, Ireland 17 June 1827 & that all the inhabitants of the frugal, valiant Irish King's Park.

Jane & Geo. first lived in a log cabin when they moved in Heber City in fall of 1860, from Springville, Utah. By hard work & punch-pouring savings, they prepared a farm.

By 1874 they were able to move into a large millstone and working seeing eggs & butter etc. She tucked away a part of her sales in her secret place, behind a stone in the basement of her home. Over years of thought her secret savings amount to over $1500 in 1875. 1891 1892 1893 1894 1895 1896 1897 1898 1899 1900 1901 1902 1903 in a leather pouch. That gold Butler construction by the time that gold Butler construction, the 31 yr Co. of Salt Lake had finished excavation, had all tractor operator, Eugene R. Rose of ore, had built-dug out, sometime Jane the Donald Clyde's treasure of gold. So, the first gold discovered in Heber City had been dug out, maybe not the last.
